ENCLOSURE: (a) Report of [ ] Consultant, dated 19 April 1951, Subject: same as above.

1. [ ] an OPC consultant, has just completed a ten-day tour of duty in this Office in order to appraise the OPC assessment requirements and the existing TRD assessment program and facilities. This survey was initially planned several months ago with the support and approval of the then Chief of the Assessment Staff, TRD, [ ] During the study, the present Chief of the Assessment Staff, Dr. [ ] and all other personnel involved provided invaluable assistance and cooperation for which this Office is most appreciative.

2. The many problems of personnel administration inherent in OPC operations and activities are well known and need not be repeated. However, the primary and most compelling reason why an efficient and complete assessment program for OPC personnel is required is that at the actual "point of operation," in most cases, it is impossible to properly supervise OPC personnel. This necessitates a very careful selection and training of OPC-type personnel.

3. [ ] was asked to analyze and appraise OPC requirements and the present assessment facilities, with particular reference to:

a. The effectiveness of the assessment program as operated by TRD, with suggestions for possible improvement in order to better fulfill the special requirements of OPC.

b. The extent to which two-day assessments should be utilized in connection with the screening of applicants,
